Resolved, That we rejoice in behalf of the citizens of our entire State by reason of the immeasurable blessings that will accrue to them in having the legalized liquor traffic banished from our Capital City, and by reason of the great encouragement it will lend to the cause of reform throughout all Texas as a result of such patriotic action;

Resolved, That we as representatives of the citizenship of our entire State, hereby declare that the patriotic act of the citizens of our Capital City has added untold strength to the cause of reform in every section of Texas, and express our unalterable purpose to make our entire State "bone dry," and to forever free our people from the domination of a legalized liquor traffic.

H. B. No. 9, A bill to be entitled "An Act to prohibit the barter, sale or exchange in time of war of spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, within ten miles of any camp or concentration point where soldiers, sailors, marines or aviators are being trained in time of war for military service, in the army and navy of the United States, and to provide suitable punishment for a violation of the terms of said act."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Thomason of El Paso offered the following (committee) amendments to the bill:

(1)

Amend House bill No. 9 by striking out all after the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. From and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person in time of war between the United States and any other nation or country to sell, barter or exchange any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, within ten miles of any part of the land or buildings occupied or controlled by the government of the United States or any department thereof, and used as a fort, arsenal, training camp, aviation field or school where soldiers, sailors, marines or aviators are being quartered, drilled or trained for service in any branch or department of the United States army or navy, except as herein provided.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation in time of war to ship or transport by or over any common carrier, express or service car any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, into the zone or territory within ten miles of any part of the land or buildings occupied or controlled by the United States government or any department thereof, and used as a fort, arsenal or training camp, aviation field or school where soldiers, sailors, marines or aviators are being quartered, drilled or trained for service in any branch of the United States army or navy, except as herein provided.

Sec. 3. From and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person in time of war to carry in any manner any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, into the zone or territory within ten miles of any part of the land or buildings occupied or controlled by the United States government or any department thereof, and used as a fort, arsenal, training camp, aviation field or school where soldiers, sailors, aviators or marines are being held, quartered or trained for service in any branch of the United States army or navy, except as herein provided.

Sec. 3a. The foregoing provisions of this bill shall not apply to bona fide sales and shipments for purely medicinal or sacramental purposes.

Sec. 4. From and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any judge, tax collector, county clerk or person in authority, to issue any license or permit of any kind in time of war, authorizing or permitting any person or firm to engage in the business of selling, bartering or exchanging spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, in the zone or territory within ten miles of any part of the land or buildings occupied or controlled by the United States government or any department thereof, and used as a fort, arsenal, training camp or aviation field or school where soldiers, sailors, marines or aviators are being held, quartered, drilled or trained for service in any branch of the United States army or navy, except as herein provided.

Sec. 5. Any person violating any provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction therefor, shall be confined in the State penitentiary for a term of not less than two nor more than five years, and each violation shall constitute a separate offense: and no person in a prosecution for violation of this act shall have the right to make application for the suspended sentence, nor shall any person, upon conviction of a violation of this act be entitled to the benefits of the suspended sentence act.

Sec. 8. Whereas, there are many points in Texas where soldiers, sailors, marines and aviators are being trained for service in the army and navy of the United States, near which liquor is being sold to the great injury and detriment of the morale and efficiency of said troops, there exists an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and that this act become effective from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

I vote against the amendment principally for war reasons. I do think, however, that the liquor men are entitled to a reasonable time in which to close their business and dispose of their wares. I favored the Dudley amendments making the law effective May 1, and if not then, on April 1, but there was no roll call on either of those amendments.
